

Backing Off The Boss With Workplace Power!

Sunday, January 21/07
10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Guest Speaker: Jerry Tucker

Jerry Tucker is a long time U.S. union activist and former executive board member of the UAW. He was a founder of the New Directions Movement and a good part of his adult life has been about strategizing with other workers to find creative ways – in bad times as well as good – to resist corporate power in the workplace and building, through education linked to struggles, the organizational and political capacities of workers.
